Dear [REDACTED]

Jubilant Greetings! We are writing to you with good news: We just got rid of some of your Everest College debt!

Everest College is committing widespread fraud. It targets lower-income students and students of color, offers low quality education, and - with the help of the federal government - buries students under a lifetime of crushing debt, all to profit the 1%. No one should be forced to mortgage their future for an education. The only way to free ourselves is to break the debt trap altogether by uniting and organizing together. We urge you to encourage your college friends and acquaintances to join us here: everest.debtcollective.org. Help us launch a campaign to put an end to student debt, for everyone.

People want and need to hear your story - students, activists, journalists. We encourage you to reach out and email us at rollingjubilee@strikedebt.org or call [REDACTED]. If you are comfortable sharing your story with the press please fill out and return the enclosed media consent form. Rest assured that we are committed to respecting your privacy and will not share your personal information without your permission.

You no longer owe the balance of this particular debt. It is gone, a gift with no strings attached. You are no longer under any obligation to settle this account with the original creditor, the bill collector, or anyone else. Please note that we are not able to abolish any other debts you might have, including federal student loans you may have taken out to attend Everest College. We are only able to abolish the above referenced debt which has been purchased for pennies on the dollar by The Rolling Jubilee Fund, a 501(c)(4) non-profit organization. The mission of this project is to buy and abolish personal debt. We believe that no one should be forced to go into debt for basic needs like healthcare and education.

You are not a loan!

Sincerely,

Strike Debt
The Rolling Jubilee Fund
